About This Game

Join us in a world covered in office supplies, arts and crafts material and a lot of cardboard – where you could find colourful surprises behind every corner. Experience exiting skirmishes in this completely new version!

Cardboard Wars is a 1st person cartoon shooter in an imaginary Cardboard Universe. Match up with others online for funny multiplayer competition.

Enjoy a huge battle in each environmentally unique map.

Since Cardboard Wars is a multiplayer game we strive to always keep it fresh by adding new game modes and having more Levels for you to reach. Focus of the game is a fast and funny shooter game like what most of us played back in the 90s on many LAN party's.

Customize the looks of your character and jump into battle!

I can recommend this game for anyone who will want to play this with a bunch of friends Online or on Lan, it's so much fun!

The gunplay and movement is very direct which I really like and of course the Art-Style is fantastic! So many fun little details everywhere. I really hope to see more fun maps and weapons in the future!

. Very fun game with your friends. I bought this the day it came out and played it a few times with my bud. It has a very cool art style and the mechanics feel good. Only buy if you have friends to play it with as well.. Dead game, thats all i log on no games open no one playing it's dead. This review was taken from LvLRaid.com

Cardboard Wars is a third person shooter set in an arts & crafts style world where the goal is to paint your opponents until they inevitably collapse: though that's probably a strange way to put it \(it's paintball\).

The player goes head to head with online competitors \(also made of cardboard\) in a variety of multiplayer game modes. There isn't an option for offline play just yet, but the developers have confirmed that they are working on bots to soften the blow of an empty server list. In Deathmatch, its winner takes all as you fight against the clock to be the player with the most kills. In Team Deathmatch, its red vs blue in a battle for bragging rights. Finally, there is Battlebox mode: a sudden death arena the size of a box \(literally\). With a growing assortment of bats, guns, and grenades, run for your life or ready your weapon in an attempt to be the last player standing. And lastly, try not to fall in the water ' wet cardboard is sort of gross.

Cardboard Wars offers an entertaining experience with simple yet polished level design in the theme of a DIY children's play set. Currently there are three maps available to host a game: Farm, Oasis, and Pool Party \(see images below\). Immerse yourself in a colorful and compelling scene: where the corn stalks are q tips, and the trees are made of cardboard!

Despite minor outfit glitches, the smooth controls and simple graphics allow for this game to run on high to low end computers alike. The subtle detail in the character's idle movement, and close attention to attack animation shows that Cardboard Wars is much more than an amateur passion project.

TL;DR - Cardboard Wars offers an exciting casual addition to the multiplayer shooter genre. With help from the community, this game could grow to be a household name.

. NICE little game, its fun to play a quick game with your friends. I like Battlebox... reminds me to PUBG with last 16 alive.

Go ahead with this, like to see more of it

Granade binding should be right from the beginning on G

Hope to see lot of server in the future

#

. tbh this game should not be on syeam because no ones playing it 11.99 for a new dead game it should be free really be free what a waist of money ratbyte you should be ashamed. just gota refundd dont buy this crap

. Just bought the game and wanted to join and play, but there was absolutely no people online, population of this game is equal 0... maybe in the future i would recommend it because the game looks nice, but cant play this game alone.
