We had last week off so I was busy for a few days. Then we headed to my parents for a night. My Dad had surgery and then home health care has been great to him... now he is home. My Mom had to leave after her husband passed away at the beginning of the week. A couple of days after he passed away the Dr. called to tell my Mom and I that my Dad had a lung embolism and there was enough blockage that he was not going to make it. It hit us really hard. My Mom was very strong through it. Then she had to pick up the pieces and head home. I was a little sad about this because I was already having to take care of my Daddy and now I was also feeling like this mom thing was coming back. I am glad we were there for support. While there I took a couple of days off and took a trip to Dallas. It was a fun trip. We went to the Dallas Zoo and saw the Lion King which is our favorite. Then we walked a few miles and saw the Christmas lights in the city, next to the zoo. It was pretty cool. It is raining now so it is kind of cool. I try to picture sunny at home here. I love the rain because we do not have any AC. My family is complete now. I still do not have a hubby or children. That will have to wait.Menu Lightning Strikes to Protect Kids from Smokeless Tobacco With the recent increase in use f678ea9f9e
